

First Written Report.

The following is a summary of thoughts, suggestions etc gained from experience encountered with the day to day operation to date. It should be clearly appreciated that this is how the writer views the Employment situation.

Under this heading it <sup>would ahead</sup> ~~is ahead~~ that our system of recruiting particularly ~~the~~ ~~for~~ in regard to the present method of approval could be improved.

In this respect it is important to remember we are not employing Bureaucratic people.

When this type of worker applies for a position they expect a decision on the spot

* ~~Without any~~
Bearing in mind that the proof of our selection methods specifically lies in the ability of the applicants to perform their duties and that we do not have this proof at this stage we can only assume that the aptitude tests are quite satisfactory.

A further evaluation of these will be made at a later stage.
